

Graduate Student Council Travel Awards Summer-Fall 2009

Below is a notice regarding a travel award competition conducted by the Graduate Student Council. Please consider this as an option for funding your travel to present papers at professional conferences. It may be used in conjunction with funding provided by the department. If the date for this competition has expired, please check with the office indicated below to inquire if a new competition will be established. (If so, please inform the Sociology Department Graduate Advisor so this document can be updated.)

Subject: GSC Travel Awards, up to $500, deadline July 15th

The Graduate Student Council is pleased to announce that the competition for the GSC Travel Awards is now open and applications are being accepted. This is the first year graduate students have the opportunity to apply for these awards, which are intended to enhance graduate education by providing funds for academic and/or professional conferences.

Awards are distributed in maximum amounts of $500, $300, and $100 according to your level of participation in the professional activity. For example, those graduate students presenting original work whose applications are accepted are eligible for up to $500.

There will be four award periods in the next academic year. If you are planning to attend a conference in the period of September 1, 2009 – November 30, 2009, then you will need to submit the application, as a hard copy, to:

Graduate Student Council
Attn: Travel Awards Committee
133 John J. Koldus Building
1236 TAMU
College Station, TX 77843-1236

by 5:00 p.m. on July 15th, 2009. Required materials include a cover sheet, application form, and a short essay. Notifications will be mailed on August 1st. More details on the awards can be found online (gsc.tamu.edu/travelawards).

We look forward to your application!
